Message from the Principal

I am really honoured and feel very privileged to function as the Principal of Katahguri College. The College has completed illustrious 33 years from it's establishment in 1988. This college has been working for intellectual awakening and all round development of the people of the west part of the Nagaon and east part of the Morigaon district.

It has been my continuous endeavour to develop this college as an active learning centre. The exemplary Service the college has rendered Society has received due recognition in this area.

I am fortunate to be in the position where I can listen and solve the challenges that our student face. I represent the diligent faculty and staff of our college.

I extend a warm welcome to the upcoming students and ask them to join us on an intellectual stimulating adventure.

With regards.
Dr. Khairul Islam,
Principal
