

Departmental Workshop Organized by the Assamese Department

The Assamese Department of Katahguri College organized a departmental workshop on 9th April 2019, from 1 p.m. to 4 p.m. The topic of the workshop was “Asomiya Sanskritit Lukachar Aru Jonobishwas: Ak Abolukon.” The event provided an in-depth look into superstitions and beliefs in Assamese culture.

The outcome of the workshop was a greater understanding and critical reflection on cultural superstitions and beliefs among the participants. The workshop aimed to foster awareness and encourage scholarly discussion on these cultural aspects. By exploring these topics, the event aligned with the Indian Knowledge System, emphasizing the importance of cultural awareness and critical thinking. The workshop enriched the participants' knowledge of Assamese culture, promoting a more informed and analytical approach to understanding and preserving cultural heritage.
