Report on Seminar: Causes and Effects of Market Failure in India

On May 19, 2023, the Department of Economics at Katahguri College organized a seminar to investigate the causes and effects of market failure in India. The seminar aimed to provide students with a deeper understanding of the economic factors leading to market inefficiencies and their broader impacts on the Indian economy.

The event began with an introductory address by Dr. Khairul Islam, Principal of Katahguri College, who emphasized the significance of analyzing market failures to devise effective economic policies. Keynote speakers, including Dr. [Guest Speaker Name] and Dr. [Guest Speaker Name], delivered insightful presentations on the various causes of market failure, such as monopolies, externalities, public goods, and information asymmetry. They also discussed the socio-economic effects of these failures on different sectors of the Indian economy.

Outcome: The seminar successfully enhanced students' understanding of the complex dynamics behind market failure in India. It encouraged critical thinking and analysis among participants, equipping them with knowledge to identify and address market inefficiencies. The discussions and interactive sessions provided a platform for students to engage with economic concepts and their real-world applications, fostering a proactive approach to economic challenges.
